Coordinate By TERA KO-YA

Koyasan was the most advanced in this period around 1200 years ago by Kobo Daishi Kukai.
Opened to bring esoteric Buddhism from China to Japan
and spread its teachings.
This is the training dojo.

Koyasan spreads out in a basin surrounded by mountains at an altitude of 1000 m.
Although it is a World Heritage Site,
it is still a monk's monastery.
It can be said to be a place of training,
a place of learning, and a living sanctuary.

Both holy places of Koyasan.
The Danjo Garan was built by Kukai-sama as a training dojo.
Okunoin where Kukai-sama entered.

Passed down in Koyasan for more than 1200 years Experience monastic formation and look at yourself with peace of mind.
Discover a new identity.
